Ferret Ecology  Problem Log
Reflective Moment: Encountering a Problem

Briefly respond to one of the questions below. Place an x by the question answered.

____ Why do you suppose the black-footed ferret is so important?

____ What seem to be the most important elements of the problem at this point?

A quality response: (1) addresses the question, (2) stays on topic, (3) is plausible or reasonable, and (4) gives enough detail to make your ideas clear.
