

THE SECRET CODE OF

senses

JORDAN P. NOVAK AND CODY ROUNDS

Royal Fireworks Press
Unionville, New York

Hi there! I'm your body!

We've known each other for a long time, but I didn't know how to introduce myself properly.

You see, I'm not used to using words like you do. I use a secret code to communicate with you.

Can you figure out what my language is?

When you see with your eyes,
I'm telling you the picture of what's around you.

When you hear with your ears, I'm telling you the sounds that surround you.

When you smell with your nose,
I'm giving you clues about things you can't see or hear.

When you taste with your mouth, I'm telling you if something is good to eat.
